The whole world will meet at the Palais des Papes from 6 to 9 October 2020!

Colour in all its palettes is exposed. Artists, architects, researchers, industrialists from 40 countries and specialists in colour in all its forms (vegetal, mineral or animal colours, photography, analysis and image synthesis, 2D & 3D printing, digital display, &c) meet at the Palais des Papes. Discover the latest innovations at conferences in rooms inaccessible to the public visitor (Conclave room, Benoît XII cellar, room of the Paneterie), participate in animations on stands in the prestigious Great Audience Hall (XIVth century) which will remain specially open to the visiting public. An international symposium of the International Colour Association, organized by its French representative, the Centre Français de la Couleur.
